There of corn and a very large production of is no evidence as yet, and for some time oate, the western crop situation contains to come can not be, that injuries susmany encouraging features. The southern cotton crop has undoubtedly suffered and condition is unprecedentedly low for this season of the year, but the acreage planted was a leading one and prices are so much higher that a satisfactory financial return is confidently looked for. In addition, railroad earnings point to the maintenance of the business of the country at a volume in excess of last year. The effort of the big iron and steel scerns to control prices, if really made, has proved abortive, and another wholesale shashing of quotations is to be reported this week, Production, however, is falling off, and increases of furnace stocks, though considerable, would seem small if renewed activity occurred. It is hard to see how lower prices can be experted and it is said that present quotaions are attracting some business, particularly at Chicago. The situation in cotton goods is an embarrassing one for he manufacturers. Raw cotton, old crop this week remeded the highest price in en years, but nothing like a proportionate advance is being secured in many finished products.
